15. Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary

The Institute runs specific UG and PG programs /courses under broad categories of Arts, Social Sciences, Pure Sciences, Bio Sciences, offering subjects of various choices, thereby catering to demands of the students of the region. In addition, the college has organised webinars pertaining to various dimensions of study in which students, teachers, scholars not only from the mother institute but also from other regions and states have served both as resource persons and esteemed audience, thereby enhancing the scope of healthy interchange of ideas and opinions, definitely adding to this interdisciplinary flavour.

Moreover Add-on-Courses which aims at imparting knowledge beyond strict curricula framework and provides a scope of receiving an all-encompassing cognigence on disciplines of multiple flavours have already been initiated at departmental levels.

16. Academic bank of credits (ABC):

The Affiliating University being aware of this innovative step of continuous assimilation and amalgamation of skills and instilling mobility of students across higher educational institutions, has probably started with the preparation of the roadmap for the introduction of the same. Being an affiliated institute under Cooch Behar Panchanan Barma University, we are eagerly awaiting for the intimation and clarification regarding the academic bank of credits and the proposed policy frame work. We anticipate that this historic policy concerning education will yield optimistic results and be beneficial for the student community at large.

17. Skill development:

In a college with mostly UG courses with some running PG courses as well, the aim of the institution always remains to develop and propagate a learning culture whereby the students of the college feel the interest and get excited to know about new things as well as apply them in projects and enterprises in their future life.

In an unwanted situation like the COVID 19 Pandemic which occasionally hampered the teaching-learning ambience, the IQAC maintained a liaison with the Head of the Institution in spite of all odds and chalked out a plan of the initiation of such skill augmentation courses as soon as situation becomes fully favourable. Thus, Computer learning and Spoken/Functional English Courses have been introduced. Moreover, an Incubation Centre with concern towards innovation and entrepreneurship got introduced in this academic session.

18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

The syllabi as taught in this college comprehensively follows the CBCS curriculum designed to spread the rich heritage of our country including the traditional knowledge about its culture, arts, literature and the likely. The disciplines as taught in this college viz. Sanskrit (both at UG and PG levels), Bengali (both at UG and PG levels), History (both at UG and PG levels) Philosophy, Political Science (at UG levels) engages in further cultivating the richness of Indian culture with their specific topics delivering the importance of integration of Indian values with the values of the outer world, thus aiming at homogeneous understanding of life and its worth.

To mention, worthy of importance, the Department of Sanskrit, bearing a hallmark of Indian culture as rooted in conventionalism, keeps on organising seminars keeping alive this essence.

19.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

The institution delivering learning instructions based on CBCS curriculum, naturally focuses on Outcome Based Education whereby learning during the specific academic periods becomes an experience for each of the student, as they target at achieving the goal within a stipulated period.

Instructions as delivered by the teachers are thoughtful and adapts to learner needs. Since the syllabi has to be completed within a predetermined time period and students have to be prepared for examinations, so instructions become precise but to the point, so that clear criteria for what constitutes mastery is essentially delivered to the learners. Learners are also assisted when and where they have to face challenges.

During the academic session 2021-2022, when academics got partially hampered due to COVID-19 Pandemic, some instructions were given to students on an online mode, whereby their problems were tried to sort out virtually through digital interactions.

The institution by this time have already realised the utility of Outcome Based Education system (OBE) and have started devising ways to incorporate the syllabus under this framework. Thus POs and COs of specific disciplines have started to be put into this framework of analysis.

20.Distance education/online education:

COVID-19 Pandemic made Distance /Online learning at vogue. The flexibility in teaching-learning through online mode from a distance, became an utmost necessity, if courses of study were to be completed strategically and students were to be made ready to face online examination patterns. Since remaining physically present was non-permissible, so there was a rise in this education option. Students, for whom affordability of internet facilities was a question in itself, assistance was provided from the college end.

The College houses two well established centres of Distance Learning, the Indira Gandhi National Open University and the Directorate of Distance Learning, The University of Burdwan.

Being an affiliated institution under Cooch Behar Panchanan Barma University ,the institute enjoys meager advantage of flexibly amalgamating the crosscutting issues such as Gender, Environment and sustainability etc.,although Acharya Brojendra Nath Seal College pursuing CBCS curriculum under Cooch Behar Panchanan Barma University has the scope of assimilation and induction of crosscutting issues such as Professional Ethics, Gender etc. through the subjects taught at this institution viz. ### 2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

An age old institution like Acharya Brojendra Nath Seal College, still standing with its own valour, have produced students and scholars in the yesteryears who got established on their own credibility. Based on critical assessment and analytical perception, teachers of this institution have given their whole hearted dedication, not only for those who are brighter academically, but more competently for those, who are a bit behind in the long queue of achievers.

Advanced learners are given ample opportunity to come forward with their academic pursuit by giving/presenting subject specific papers based on their research quest. Besides owing to Pandemic situation, interested students have been forwarded and continuously encouraged to go through brochures making ways for participating in different types of competitions (both online and offline) such as essay writing, quizzes, extempores, etc., so as to keep up their academic spirit. Moreover special home assignments, projects, problem solving modules and suggestive tips are given to the students for taking up competitive avenues, so as to get channelised towards promising academic and career opportunities.

For comparatively slow learners under the challenging Pandemic circumstances, special online tutorials and academic suggestions were imparted by teachers whenever required. Besides, online class materials were displayed on website to help students of all categories. Teachers as mentors of students try to know about their academic problems and cater them with solutions in ways possible.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

Being an affiliated institution under Cooch Behar Panchanan Barma

University, the institution has to stick to the curriculum and course structures framed by the University. Accordingly, opportunity to use student-centric methods like experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies directly into curriculum, is rather less. However teaching and learning of science subjects that begins with curiosity, exploration of facts through experiments, providing hands-on opportunities to discover the world around and discovering how things work, fosters scientific thinking, observation, questioning and testing data. The same process ensures participative involvement and application of problem solving methods. Thus teachers involved in the teaching of Science subjects definitely incorporate methods like those mentioned above to make learning more effective and application oriented as well as meaningful. The Academic session 2021-2022 got affected due to pandemic to some extent, thus direct interaction of teachers with the students got affected. Gathering of experiences through everyday living, facing problems of life and trying to overcome those by using common sense and sense of rational thinking definitely ensures effective learning, and this responsibility is borne almost by all disciplines today.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

With regard to internal class tests, the departments are given full freedom to conduct tests and evaluate the student's performance. Since Choice Based Credit System is adopted, so student's performance are assessed and evaluated all the year round. However the departments enjoy flexibility in the adoption of suitable methods in this regard. Time and mode of assessment are also decided by the departmental heads in due consultation with the other faculty members, keeping in tune with the academic calendar as prepared by the IQAC.

The same process have been tried to be adhered to, on both offline & online basis during this academic session, and marks have been submitted to the University by all the concerned departments in due time. Display of marks in notice boards are also made, an explanation of which is made underneath.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time- bound and efficient

Under Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) is an essential part and therefore has been introduced in this institution since 2017. In order to improve the mechanism of internal examination and evaluation, IQAC of the college in consultation with different stakeholders has provided various suggestions based on which the college has adopted the following measures: - Project based evaluation system besides of conventional evaluation system. - Group discussions and seminar presentations by the students - Field survey report based on Departmental excursions and educational tours.

With regard to internal class tests, the departments are given full freedom to conduct tests and evaluate the student's performance. Since Choice based Credit System is adopted, student's performance are assessed and evaluated all the year round. The performance of students in internal evaluations are then put into discussion in meetings with the Principal and if need arises, measures are taken to redress the exam related issues. Till date meticulous evaluation of internal examination answer sheets and careful assessment of student's performance have led to zero incidences of grievances cropping up from the students' end.

Besides these, glimpses of courses taught at this institution and probable opportunities after studying them are also well informed to the students through the college prospectus. Apart from this, keeping the Pandemic situation in mind, the college took an initiative of conducting an online programme highlighting on the prospects of studying specific subjects at this institution. Thus, programme and course outcomes for all programmes offered at this institution are well articulated and conversed beforehand, so that students enter this institution with an impression. ## 6.5 - Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 - Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing the quality assurance strategies and processes

Institutionalized initiatives of IQAC:

1. Publication of Academic Journals

In order to develop academic skills amongst junior faculty members IQAC is instrumental in directing their positive energy towards writing analytical articles and thereby enhancing their academic competence. For successful execution of this objective the Victorian Journal of Arts is published bi-annually and the B.N. Seal Journal of Science of A.B.N. Seal College is published annually.

2. Organizing Add-on courses, Departmental Memorial Lectures and students' seminars

During the academic session, to make the students well equipped with a new orientation other than regular classes, IQAC planned for Add-on courses so as to provide students of different departments, to get exposure of interdisciplinary and skill enhancement courses.

In addition to these, memorial lectures/webinars and students' seminars were also organized to make a positive use of their energy. These initiatives of IQAC helped students to acquaint with the process of writing and presenting papers in front of a considerable public within the class rooms and thereby breaking their stage fright.

6.5.2 - The institution reviews its teaching learning process, structures & methodologies of operations and learning outcomes at periodic intervals through IQAC set up as per norms and recorded the incremental improvement in various activities

This academic session was affected by the 2nd and 3rd wave of Covid-19 pandemic. Accordingly, though regular teaching-learning exercises were carried out through online mode, students could not avail the library facilities properly due to disruption of college attendance. To overcome this problem, IQAC in consultation with the Principal and Library committee of the college took an initiative to give access to the students to N- List e-resources provided by UGC-INFLIBNET.

IQAC has taken online feedback from the outgoing students of the 6th Semester B.A./ B.Sc. (Honours/Programme) and 4th Semester M.A./M.Sc. for the session 2021-2022. Separate feedbacks in Google forms were sought from the hostel boarders (both boys' and girls') of outgoing batches. Forms were sent to the students through their respective e-mail ids in distinct batches. It was ensured that no student fills the form more than once. Most importantly, responses were collected in an anonymous manner so that the identity of the responding student is not disclosed. After feedbacks were collected, it was analysed by the IQAC and a summary report was prepared. The gross responses of each batch of students/hostel boarders (i.e., without mentioning the response from the individual student) were sent to the Head of the Departments/ Hostel Superintendents/ Librarian of Central Library for their information and necessary follow-up actions.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within

200 words

One area of the institute's Priority: Likewise other premier institutes of the nation and the world, this 133-year-old college since its inception has always given the priority of nurturing its students according to the demand of the contemporary world.

In its Thrust Area:

133 Years young Acharya Brojendra Nath Seal College aims to be an institution par excellence in the sphere of higher education and research through the development, cultivation of innovative skills and potentiality of application of knowledge towards creating well-rounded, multiskilled, farsighted socially responsible citizens ready to face the updated world view, with a decent fervour towards people centric ecologically sustainable society.

Further, this Higher Education institute is equally concerned about the performance of academically weaker students so as to make them more competent, thus enabling them to face the competitive world. In this context, it may be argued that A. B. N. Seal College being an academia in this remote corner of West Bengal, has been continuously taking the challenge to make a notable intellectual contribution in the wider field of life of the state, nation and the world.

Amid Covid situation, while maintenance of the continuity of education was felt to be an utmost challenge and an alarming necessity, online classes were arranged by all the departments of the college and e-materials were prepared by the teachers and circulated to the students in order to keep intact the academic ambience.

Part B

However, the College prospectus and academic calendar have been prepared by the College authority in accordance with the curriculum and got displayed in both printed form and on the College Website. The academic session began with departmental meetings which were held in every department whereby the topics got distributed. The Routine committee prepared a routine taking into cognizance departmental priorities for each semester for both UG and PG levels. Individual teachers after due consultation with the Head of the Department chalksout lesson plans and course structure in detail. ## 2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

An age old institution like Acharya Brojendra Nath Seal College, still standing with its own valour, have produced students and scholars in the yesteryears who got established on their own credibility. Based on critical assessment and analytical perception, teachers of this institution have given their whole hearted dedication, not only for those who are brighter academically, but more competently for those, who are a bit behind in the long queue of achievers.

Advanced learners are given ample opportunity to come forward with their academic pursuit by giving/presenting subject specific papers based on their research quest. Besides owing to Pandemic situation, interested students have been forwarded and continuously encouraged to go through brochures making ways for participating in different types of competitions (both online and offline) such as essay writing, quizzes, extempores, etc., so as to keep up their academic spirit. Moreover special home assignments, projects, problem solving modules and suggestive tips are given to the students for taking up competitive avenues, so as to get channelised towards promising academic and career opportunities.

For comparatively slow learners under the challenging Pandemic circumstances, special online tutorials and academic suggestions were imparted by teachers whenever required. Besides, online class materials were displayed on website to help students of all categories. Teachers as mentors of students try to know about their academic problems and cater them with solutions in ways possible.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

Being an affiliated institution under Cooch Behar Panchanan Barma University, the institution has to stick to the curriculum and course structures framed by the University. Accordingly, opportunity to use student-centric methods like experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies directly into curriculum, is rather less. However teaching and learning of science subjects that begins with curiosity, exploration of facts through experiments, providing hands-on opportunities to discover the world around and discovering how things work, fosters scientific thinking, observation, questioning and testing data. The same process ensures participative involvement and application of problem solving methods. Thus teachers involved in the teaching of Science subjects definitely incorporate methods like those mentioned above to make learning more effective and application oriented as well as meaningful. The Academic session 2021-2022 got affected due to pandemic to some extent, thus direct interaction of teachers with the students got affected. Gathering of experiences through everyday living, facing problems of life and trying to overcome those by using common sense and sense of rational thinking definitely ensures effective learning, and this responsibility is borne almost by all disciplines today.

6.5 - Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 - Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing the quality assurance strategies and processes

Institutionalized initiatives of IQAC:

1. Publication of Academic Journals

In order to develop academic skills amongst junior faculty members IQAC is instrumental in directing their positive energy towards writing analytical articles and thereby enhancing their academic competence. For successful execution of this objective the Victorian Journal of Arts is published bi-annually and the B.N. Seal Journal of Science of A.B.N. Seal College is published annually.

2. Organizing Add-on courses, Departmental Memorial Lectures and students' seminars

During the academic session, to make the students well equipped with a new orientation other than regular classes, IQAC planned for Add-on courses so as to provide students of different departments, to get exposure of interdisciplinary and skill enhancement courses.

In addition to these, memorial lectures/webinars and students' seminars were also organized to make a positive use of their energy. These initiatives of IQAC helped students to acquaint with the process of writing and presenting papers in front of a considerable public within the class rooms and thereby breaking their stage fright.

6.5.2 - The institution reviews its teaching learning process, structures & methodologies of operations and learning outcomes at periodic intervals through IQAC set up as per norms and recorded the incremental improvement in various activities

This academic session was affected by the 2nd and 3rd wave of Covid-19 pandemic. Accordingly, though regular teaching-learning exercises were carried out through online mode, students could not avail the library facilities properly due to disruption of college attendance. To overcome this problem, IQAC in consultation with the Principal and Library committee of the college took an initiative to give access to the students to N-List e-resources provided by UGC- INFLIBNET.

IQAC has taken online feedback from the outgoing students of the 6th Semester B.A./ B.Sc. (Honours/Programme) and 4th Semester M.A. /M.Sc. for the session 2021-2022. Separate feedbacks in Google forms were sought from the hostel boarders (both boys' and girls') of outgoing batches. Forms were sent to the students through their respective e-mail ids in distinct batches. It was ensured that no student fills the form more than once. Most importantly, responses were collected in an anonymous manner so that the identity of the responding student is not disclosed. After feedbacks were collected, it was analysed by the IQAC and a summary report was prepared. The gross responses of each batch of students/hostel boarders (i.e., without mentioning the response from the individual student) were sent to the Head of the Departments/ Hostel Superintendents/ Librarian of Central Library for their information and necessary follow-up actions.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

One area of the institute's Priority: Likewise other premier institutes of the nation and the world, this 133-year-old college since its inception has always given the priority of nurturing its students according to the demand of the contemporary world.

In its Thrust Area:

133 Years young Acharya Brojendra Nath Seal College aims to be an institution par excellence in the sphere of higher education and research through the development, cultivation of innovative skills and potentiality of application of knowledge towards creating well-rounded, multiskilled, farsighted socially responsible citizens ready to face the updated world view, with a decent fervour towards people centric ecologically sustainable society.

Further, this Higher Education institute is equally concerned about the performance of academically weaker students so as to make them more competent, thus enabling them to face the competitive world. In this context, it may be argued that A. B. N. Seal College being an academia in this remote corner of West Bengal, has been continuously taking the challenge to make a notable intellectual contribution in the wider field of life of the state, nation and the world.

Amid Covid situation, while maintenance of the continuity of education was felt to be an utmost challenge and an alarming necessity, online classes were arranged by all the departments of the college and e-materials were prepared by the teachers and circulated to the students in order to keep intact the academic ambience.
